PERRY & CAMP,

71 and 75 Main Street, (Phone 9-4) Barre, Vermont.

Plain or Carved Back Chairs!

Which Do You Prefer?

That every dining-room may look at its best and not possess any broken or weak-legged Chairs on Thanksgiving day we announce a series of special prices on our Dining-room Chairs. The patterns are so numerous that it will be an easy matter to match the rest of your Dining-room Set, and do so at a very low cost. We have

Dining Chairs at 83c and $1.50 Better Ones at $3.00 to $5.50

Call and inspect them before purchasing elsewhere.

We are showing in our window, today Sleighs for the little ones. One of them with a White Lamb's Wool Robe complete for $4.90. Sleighs push so much easier on our snows than Go-carts with the runners that it is necessary for us to show a good line of them. Remember where to find them.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY TIMES

For the Thanksgiving Table!

We don't mean things to eat, but things to hold the things to eat—and drink, too.

Everything from a tiny Celery Dip to a Dinner Service for the eatables.

Everything from a Wine Glass to a Punch Bowl for the drinkables.

Everything from a Pie Plate to a double Roast Pan in the baking line.

The hostess who is contemplating an epicurean triumph in celebrating Thanksgiving Day should see us first.

CASH BARGAIN STORE,

185-187 North Main Street. (Telephone 123-12) Barre, Vermont.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Auction this evening.

Catholic fair tonight.

New costume velvets at Vaughan's.

See programme for the fair tonight.

A full line of the latest black coats at Abbott's.

Remember the City Bakery leads for a large variety.

J. D. Yandow wants 25 or 30 new milch cows and also beef cattle.

Providence river oysters 40 cents per quart at Yandow's Cash Market.

New tray cloths for 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c and $1.00 each. At Veale & Knight's.

The Frank McWhorter Co. can supply your wants in the fur line. See their window.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cataract went to Swanton today for a few days' visit with relatives.

Furs that are satisfactory at Fitt's.

Odd lace curtains at but little above half-price at Fitt's.

The annual meeting of the Glengue club will be held in the Manufacturers' association rooms this (Saturday) evening, at 7 sharp.

The drawing of the articles at the Catholic fair will not take place tonight, as the fair is to be continued until Tuesday evening.

S. J. Segel & Co. on Depot square offer for Saturday only, a special sale of 30 pairs of men's overalls, union made, with frocks to match, of the best 50c make. Special price for Saturday, only 40 cents a garment.

It's the talk of the town—the big C. O. D. sale of Brady's $20,000 clothing stock.

If you value money, join the crowd of eager bargain seekers at 118 Main street, where the red carvings adorn the front, and participate in the many remarkable money saving opportunities of this great event.

A lad named Bert Pierson couldn't resist the temptation offered by the new snow to throw snowballs and his aim was so good that he hit John Jones, the well known Town of Barre resident, on the head. That occurred Thursday afternoon. Pierson was arrested yesterday and was in city court last night on the charge of breach of the peace, to which he pleaded guilty, paying a fine of $1 and costs of $5.25. Mr. Jones was quite badly hurt. Other youngsters who follow the same practice will be prosecuted.

There was the usual large crowd at the Catholic fair last evening. Three hundred admission tickets were sold at the door, besides the season tickets that were punched. The entertainment was one of the most enjoyable of the week, the programme consisting of musical selections, a pantomime and a farce, "Mrs. Willis' Will," all of which were very nicely rendered. The fair will not close this evening as it has been decided to run it over into next week, closing on Tuesday evening. There will be dancing this evening, but no other programme.

Few better staged plays have ever been seen in the Barre opera house than Clara Klein's "The Lion and the Mouse," which was presented last evening by Henry B. Harris. The house was all but filled with an audience which was vastly more appreciative of the good work of the players than usual. The play has had unprecedented runs in New York and Chicago, and is so strong and popular that five companies are presenting it simultaneously throughout the country. Barre was certainly favored with the company which appeared here last night. The company came here from Concord, N. H., where it played to a crowded house Thursday night.

The greatest money saving sale of the season is now on at A. A. Smith & Brother's store and all who wish their money to do double service should take advantage of this grand opportunity to purchase the highest standard goods at a lower price than you would generally pay for inferior goods. Just imagine $1.25 women's underwear with shirts, double breast and double back and double seated drawers, going for 80c; cashmere hose reduced from 50c to 35c; wool and cashmere hose reduced from 25c to 10c. Their complete line of $3.50 and $4 pants at $2.50; all their $2.50 and $3 pants at $1.95; lot of $20 and $22 Waltham watches at $14.95; lot of $15 Waltham watches at $7.95; lot of $5.50 watches $2.95; lot $1.50 stem wind and stem set watches, 98c; lot $2.50 rings for ladies and gents, 98c. See their ad on page 8.
